This book is a small, no-nonsense reference for normal people who want, or need, to make money at home. This book concentrates on truck dispatching. This is a real job that you can work from a home office with a phone and computer. It can pay a few hundred up to over a thousand a week. This is a real paying job that can lead to your own home business within a few years. Truck dispatching is a business that does not know recession. Trucks are always rolling. Grocery stores need daily deliveries. Gas stations, restaurants, shops, garages, box stores, car lots, construction sites, marinas, ports...the country would grind to a halt without trucks transporting goods. Trucks need to be dispatched to pick up and deliver these goods. Getting in on the ground level as a dispatcher can open the door to higher positions and commissions within a company, or you can start your own. Most books out there only teach how to start a truck dispatching service, but this book teaches you how to gain entrance as a dispatcher for a company. Most who start a dispatching service, without practical experience, fail within six months. Use this book in two ways: 1. Get a solid foot in the door, and learn the business before you make the leap. 2. Get a great work at home career that earns a solid check and has flexible hours.

The seminar will teach the entrepreneur planning to start a dispatch service business from home, how to set up a business and succeed in a new venture. The seminar is especially a great and useful tool for individuals with limited business experience. Before the guide proceeds to each chapter it will get yourself familiar with several useful informative details about setting up a home based business. If you have no experience in regards to the trucking industry, the first chapter will explain some truck & trailer parts and functions you need to get yourself familiar with in order to communicate professionally with your clients. We added 2 publications in order to get a better inside into the trucking industry.

these easy-to-implement strategies The first thing you should do before choosing a truck so you don't end up with half-empty trucks 8 common reasons why trucking businesses fail within the first year, and how to make sure you're not one of them What to look for on a load board that will get you better deals and more bargaining power A little-known trick to save money on fuel that goes against common sense thinking, but will benefit you in the long run Up-to-date information on the applicable laws and regulations that you need to comply with before you start And much more. Maybe you've been working in the trucking industry for years, tolerating long journeys and lonely nights, and you want to be able to finally work on your own terms. Maybe you don't have any experience in trucking, but you smell a lucrative opportunity in this solid industry. No matter what your background and reason for wanting to get into trucking, if you're serious about having your own trucking company, you'll need to enter with eyes wide open. As in any business, there will be plenty of hurdles to overcome, especially in a highly regulated industry like this. From setting up your company to dealing with strict regulations, ensuring safety, minimizing costs, finding loads, and hiring and retaining quality drivers, you've got a lot of hard work ahead of you. But once you've gone through the growing pains and get through to the other side, it will be all worth it. More freedom, independence, and flexibility, plus a bigger share of the profits. What else are you waiting for? If you don't want to miss out on the profits from a $700 billion-dollar (and growing!) industry, then scroll up and click the "Add to Cart" button right now.

The truth is that many successful trucking companies started with humble beginnings. But most of them wouldn't have been able to make it if they didn't have access to the right information. You see, most people who are looking to start a trucking company make the same mistakes - with both their planning and execution.
